

Mission Statement

The Board of Trustees of the Creekside Senior Memorial Trust Fund, Inc. assist individuals desiring to create a memorial to someone, living or dead, in the following ways: encouraging donations to fund the memorial, maintaining memorial books, and distributing trust funds for the general benefit of the Creekside Community Center.

The City of Bloomington does not discriminate on the basis of disability in the admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its services, programs, or activities. Upon request, accommodation will be provided to allow individuals with disabilities to participate in all City of Bloomington services, programs, and activities. Upon request, this information can be available in Braille, large print, audio tape and/or electronic format.

Memorial Trust Fund

Creekside Community Center

Established in 1981, the Memorial Trust Fund is a non-profit corporation designed to “honor the dead, by serving the living.”

It accepts contributions in memory of specific individuals as well as living memorials which are then used to purchase special items or establish special programs which will improve and upgrade the Senior Program.

The honored individuals are recorded in a “Memory Book” which is on permanent display at Creekside.

The Board of Trustees is available to explain options and assist you in making your decisions. All contributions will be acknowledged and the intent of the donor will be respected. Memorials are tax-deductible.

The Memorial Trust Fund is governed by a Board of Trustees consisting of representatives of the Senior Program.

If you are interested in learning how you can join the Board of Trustees to fill vacant positions contact Human Services at 952-563-4944 V/TTY.
